

Yurts

Jane H. Gurney Pavilion— An outdoor shelter with concrete floor which includes picnic tables, kitchen storage, range, refrigerator and microwave. Seating for up to 75. Available for use mid-April thru mid-October.

Recreation on your own – Hiking trails, Orienteering, Gaga ball

Recreation (additional fees) – Archery range

Odakota

Platform Tents

136 beautiful wooded acres. Lots of trees, streams, ravines and pond. Conveniently accessible from I-355 & route 53.

Lodging:

Aptakasic Lodge— Open room lodge sleeps 36 people on the floor with mattresses and is available mid-April thru mid-October. Amenities include kitchen with range, refrigerator, microwave, large fireplace and latrine toilets.

Mon Daw Min Lodge— Open room lodge sleeps 36 people year round on the floor with mattresses. Amenities include kitchen with range, refrigerator, microwave, fireplace and indoor bathrooms.

Odakota Lodge— Open room lodge sleeps 36 people year round on the floor with mattresses. Amenities include kitchen with range, refrigerator, microwave, fireplace and indoor bathrooms.

Platform Tent Areas: Akaga— Four tents of four people, sleeping 16 total.

Aowakiya—Five tents of four people, sleeping 20 total. Platform tents sites have hard roofs, campfire cooking and latrine toilets.

Qui Quito Lodge— Six (6) dorm rooms sleeping four people each on wood bunk beds year-round with centralized meeting room. Amenities include kitchen with range, refrigerator, microwave, indoor bathrooms, and fireplace.

Yurts— Five yurts sleep six people each. Yurts are available mid-April thru mid-October. Main yurt is large enough for a group gathering. Amenities include campfire cooking, bathrooms and refrigeration located in lower level of Odakota.

Qui Quito