Honor Pin

These Girl Scout adults have provided outstanding service to at least two service units or program delivery audiences in a way that furthers the council's goals. Their service goes beyond the expectations of the position.

Sandra Cervenka's more than 35 years of Girl Scout experience lends her a deep understanding of the organization. The troop leader, trainer and school organizer has an abundance of solutions and suggestions. You can count on Sandy for anything Girl Scouts, no matter the community or service unit. As a Project WILD facilitator and council trainer, she is a great teacher for adult volunteers and girls. Sandy leads outdoor training as well as the DreamMakers singing group, and excels at everything in between. While very involved in the community, Sandy always finds a way to lend a hand to Girl Scouts and uses her knowledge of the community to network and recruit. She always allows the girls to take charge to build their leadership skills, and makes it possible for anyone who wants to attend a training to do so. Sandy is said to extol the benefits of Girls Scouts everywhere she goes.

Deborah Fairchild's hands-on, girls-first approach to outdoor learning and activities has impacted the lives of many Girl Scout troops in the Chicago and Northwest Indiana area. Her love for nature, which she passes on to the girls at every opportunity, spurred her to become an archery trainer and an outdoor trainer. Now, there are more and more volunteers qualified to introduce Girl Scouts to the great outdoors. Never afraid to get her hands dirty, Deb also lobbied for and organized multiple girl-led work weekends to rebuild cabins at Camp River Trails. With her volunteer efforts, Deb honors the values Girl Scouting and helps others do the same.

Angela Foster's volunteer time with the Girl Scouts of Chicago is marked by her dedication to teamwork. Because of her unique connections with many of the girls in her troop, Angela served as a mentor for many volunteers in her community, helping them build even stronger connections. After leaving her role in the for-profit world for a volunteer stint with Girl Scouts, Angela chose to dedicate her days to the Girl Scouts by joining the staff of the Girl Scouts of Greater Chicago and Northwest Indiana. She brings her experience to the table to fine-tune and improve the training program. Angela never hesitates before helping her fellow colleagues and volunteers, and is a true team player.

Debra Lucente truly knows that Girl Scouts is a lifelong sisterhood. As a service unit lifetime committee member and record keeper, Debi has had a positive impact on a number of girls and volunteers through her years of service. As the Promise Circle chair for the 100th anniversary celebration, her efforts brought together more than 500 Girl Scouts from all over the area, which resulted in great media coverage. She also coordinates the lifetime scholarship committee and fosters relationships with former recipients so that they are encouraged to stay involved with Girl Scouts beyond graduation. Her other Girl Scout adventures include attending the 100th anniversary singalong in Washington, D.C., leading her service unit encampment for two years, coordinating a mother-daughter spa weekend, and planning World Thinking Day events. Debi is an asset to all the girls and volunteers she's encountered throughout her many years of service.

Tammy Mathis is a member of the lifetime committee and a service unit manager who has provided years of outstanding service to her service unit, council and community. Her dedication to training is reflected in her innovative work with the virtual training team, bringing training to more leaders and advancing council goals with technology. As a direct result of Tammy's diligent efforts, countless new leaders have received training that has helped them provide outstanding programming to Girl Scouts. Her contributions have made a lasting impact on leaders and girls who have benefitted from Tammy's commitment.

Linda Miller truly goes above and beyond to support her colleagues and fellow volunteers with a smile. Doing everything from driving the delivery van to making homemade strawberry jam, Linda is the first to offer to help during the busy cookie seasons. If a question comes in during odd hours or over the weekend, volunteers can count on Linda's helpful, friendly response. Her energy is high, her spirit sincere, and her belief in the Girl Scout Mission is apparent in every task she undertakes. Linda is a living example of a true Girl Scout and is a person all of her teammates and volunteers trust.

Peggy Sinko has impacted generations of Girl Scouts. As a 50-year Girl Scout member, Peggy has served in most every volunteer role possible. She has a deep wealth of experience and insight for adults and girls, and is always willing to share this knowledge. Peggy has a love for outdoors and the unique ability to find adventure and education in all things. She makes the Camporee memorable year after year, and was integral in creating and maintaining the Taste of Camporee, which is now in its fourth year, by doing whatever needed to be done. Peggy has the unique capacity to lead while knowing when to step back and let the girls demonstrate and build their leadership skills. As an avid Cubs fan, Peggy recently earned her camp name of "Ernie" (for Ernie Banks), and is said to always hit it out of the park for the Girl Scouts.

Thanks Badge

The Thanks Badge recognizes adult members whose performance is truly outstanding and benefits the entire council or Girl Scout Movement as a whole.

Rosalyn Varon's commitment to the Girl Scouts goes all the way back to her childhood, and she has the sash and beret to prove it. As an anchor for ABC7 Chicago and an enthusiastic advocate for Girl Scouts, Roz embraces every opportunity to spotlight Girl Scouts on air. Her interviews have highlighted the Girl Scout Cookie program, called attention to the Girl Scout Gold Award, and recognized Girl Scouts for their service during ABC7's annual holiday food drives. Through her spirited support of Girl Scouts at every turn, Roz has made a direct impact on the lives of girls and volunteers throughout her area and beyond.

Thanks Badge II

The Thanks Badge II is reserved for adult members, having previously earned the Thanks Badge, whose performance continues to be truly outstanding and benefits the total council or the entire Girl Scout Movement. It honors members whose service is so significantly above and beyond the call of duty, that no other award would be appropriate.

Donna Marie Advani's volunteer work with Girl Scouts over the last 20 years has proven her boundless dedication to the girls in Service Unit 406 and beyond. Whenever possible, Donna Marie is there to lend a hand, listen to a colleague, and make the best of every situation. She works tirelessly to help introduce girls to aviation through the WINGS scouting opportunity, collaborating with the council, local airports and community leaders to help Girl Scouts soar. Donna Marie's activities, support and knowledge make her indispensable to her team and a valuable role model to her girls.

Selena Randecker has served the Girl Scouts for almost 15 years, acting as a troop leader for two troops, a trainer for the council, a regional volunteer for Fall Product and Cookie Programs, and the service unit manager for Service Unit 406. She tackles every role with enthusiasm and is always ready to help her fellow volunteers. Selena goes above and beyond with every project—from helping 120 service units as a regional volunteer, to managing a cookie cupboard in her home, to leading service unit troops for girls who otherwise would not have access to Girl Scouts. Selena truly embodies what it means to be a Girl Scout.

Hall of Fame

Hall of Fame Award inductees are adults who have been members for at least 25 years, and in their time have delivered service that far exceeds the expectations of any position to have a lasting impact on the Girl Scout organization or her/his community. A maximum of 10 people are inducted each year, and this honor may be awarded posthumously.

When Kathleen Faulkner said yes to serving as a Girl Scout leader in 1980, she had no idea it would become such a large part of her life. From initiating the Pixie program, present known as Girl Scout Daisies, to teaching girls how to iron on their badges, Kathy is a lifetime Girl Scout. She spent 25 years shaping the girls of Daisy Troop #6, the first Daisy troop in Chicago. She taught them the importance of good deeds and prepared them to be good Brownies and good citizens. Her many Girl Scout memories all revolve around the girls she impacted throughout the years. Kathy is an undeniably dedicated Girl Scout who has led by example for more than 35 years.

Dynamic and Incredible Staff of the Year (D.A.I.S.Y.)

This award recognizes the outstanding service of a staff member who's been employed for at least three years and whose efforts to achieve council goals have resulted in the development of partnerships with volunteers and/or community leaders, impacting at least one service unit or program delivery audience.

Carl Canale's inimitable patience, friendliness and willingness to help make him an asset to the Girl Scout community. Carl is known for his lightning-fast responses to calls and emails, helpful explanations, and general support to Girl Scout volunteers and troops during some of the busiest times of the year. His mastery of the tambourine, as evidenced at the Volunteer Kickoff, is also unparalleled. Carl's positive, can-do attitude is more than just that – he inspires those around him to always try even harder and do even more, and for that, he is recognized today.

Julie Jungbauer's warmth and grace surrounds everything that she does, particularly in her support of service units. Her big smile and welcoming personality help encourage leaders to join in and make Girl Scouting a life-long commitment. Julie's not only a service unit support specialist, she is also a wealth of Girl Scout knowledge, a comforting figure for new volunteers, and a cheerleader for seasoned volunteers. Through her commitment, Julie propels the Girl Scout Mission forward with a smile.

Years of Service

70 YEARS

Annette Cameron or "Auntie Net" has served in almost every possible position as an adult Girl Scout. She continues to be involved with five troops and serves as cookie person for all of them. She remains involved because the girls are "So sweet." In addition, her friends tell her she cannot quit since she is a lifetime member. Annette worked at day camp for more than 20 years and is only not there now because her doctor says she cannot go to camp. Annette recently met with members from her first troop of girls (who are now ages 71, 69 and 65), and they recounted memories from their early scouting days. Many of the memories revolved around camp experiences, including the cleaning of the latrines. Annette has served as a board member, neighborhood chairman, council delegate, and outdoor trainer.

65 YEARS

Marilyn Keller has the most fascinating stories to share about her many years as a girl, staff member, and volunteer in Girl Scouting. She attended college to become a professional Girl Scout and did so for 30 years. For three years she worked for GSUSA Troops on Foreign Soil and for the North Atlantic Girl Scouts, traveling extensively through Germany, Austria, Spain, Morocco, and Italy as a field director. In 2004 she was honored with the Girl Scouts of Chicago Marjorie Culmer Community Impact Award, which was a great honor considering she had met Marjorie, who had served as President of Girl Scouts of Chicago, President of GSUSA, and World Chief Guide at WAGGGS.

60 YEARS

Years of Service

50 YEARS

Bonnie Batchelor joined Girl Scouts of Chicago as a Brownie and continued through high school. She first became a volunteer in college and over the years has served a troop leader, service unit manager, council trainer and in other volunteer roles. Bonnie also worked professionally for Girl Scout councils in Illinois, Texas, Massachusetts and New Hampshire; serving as membership manager, chief fund development officer and chief operating officer. The Girl Scout Promise guides her life; she really takes to heart the words, and at the end of each day she examines what she has accomplished. Today, Bonnie continues to volunteer in the Chicago area in a service unit, still giving back to the organization that has influenced her life.

Betty Henneman still remembers raising her hand to be a Girl Scout leader as she and her daughter sat at a school Girl Scout meeting. She has never regretted that moment. When her third and last daughter moved on in scouting, Betty told her that she planned to continue. Betty currently serves on the Catholic Medals committee, a position she has held for 20 years! Betty has enjoyed all of her leadership and council positions.

Almatine Robertson has been a leader at all grade levels in Girl Scouting. She has been active in her service unit for many years, holding the positions of coordinator, chair, vice coordinator, secretary, product sales chair, and council delegate. She hosted service unit meetings at her home and provided delicious treats at the end of each meeting, which boosted the attendance in her service unit.

Brooke Wiseman joined the Girl Scouts as a girl and continued as an adult in both professional and volunteer capacities. As a college student, she spent her summers as camp staff before joining the staff as a field director. Brooke was proud to be part of the staff at the World Conference when it was held in the United States in the 1980s. She has been a program director, an executive director in three councils in Texas and Illinois, and served as the CEO of Girl Scouts of Chicago. She is a recipient of the Appreciation Pins and Thanks Badge; she has served as the National President of the Association of Girl Scout Executive Staff. After retiring from Girl Scouting in 2008, Brooke served at the CEO of the YWCA of Metropolitan Chicago and currently is the National CEO of Blessings in a Backpack.

For the Girl Scouts of Tomorrow

By Pat Walenga

Collecting all this Girl Scout stuff has been a lot of fun,
But after all these years, my collecting time is done.
I've always loved the Girl Scouts, you know this is true,
But now it's time to downsize; you know what we have to do.
All the happy memories and things in my collection,
Are ready to be passed on, with deep and great affection.
Girls Scouts will carry on with traditions and dedication.
Please help my beloved possessions reach the ultimate destination.
Moving my things forward is not at all a sorrow –
I'm leaving my treasures for the Girl Scouts of tomorrow!

To donate Girl Scout memorabilia, please contact one of the council historians:

Gold Award Committee

We extend our gratitude to this group of volunteers who support Girl Scout Seniors and Ambassadors through the process of earning their Girl Scout Gold Award. These enthusiastic individuals dedicate time to reviewing proposals, making recommendations, reading final reports, interviewing girls, approving Gold Award projects, planning the award ceremony, and facilitating training workshops for girls who wish to take action by earning the highest awards.

Girl Scout Mission

Girl Scouting builds girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place.

Girl Scout Promise

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

Girl Scout Law

I will do my best to be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring,
courageous and strong, and responsible for what I say and do,
and to
respect myself and others,
respect authority,
use resources wisely,
make the world a better place,
and be a sister to every Girl Scout.
